

Animated Olsen twins

Mary-Kate and Ashley Olsen, the ubiquitous twins starring in ABC's "Two of a Kind," have signed a deal to make a Disney cartoon series based on the "Trenchcoat Twins" detective characters from their home-video series.

The 12-year-olds will provide the voices for the pint-size gumshoes and will serve as executive producers of the series.

There's no word on a distributor yet, but Disney-owned ABC's Saturday-morning slate would seem a likely candidate.
